18 Defendants.)

19 This Court has long delayed protecting the rights of Plaintiffs and should delay 20 no longer. The infamous Peruta en banc decision is now out and was mooted before 21 it was published, if it were even applicable to this action. In Peruta the en banc panel 22 found there was no specific right to concealed carry and that the Supreme Court had 23 not decided if the right applied outside the home, but Plaintiffs do not assert a specific 24 right to concealed carry, they contends it has become the only manner with which 25 they can exercise his second amend right to self defense outside the home, and the 26 Supreme Court has now explicitly applied the second amend to restrictions outside 27 the home, as such this matter is fully briefed and ready for decision by this Court, and 28 Plaintiff respectfully submits this matter should and his rights should not be permitted to languish any longer.
